Paul G. Gardephe
United States District Judge
Dated: June 2, 2021

Dear Judge Gardephe:

Jose Deleon is scheduled to appear before the Court on Thursday, June 3, 2021 in connection with a violation of supervised release ("VOSR") petition filed by the United States Probation Officer, Washington M. Herrera. I write to seek an adjournment of this appearance until mid-to the end of July. I have emailed the Government to obtain their position as to this request but have not had a response. I am available the week of July 19th except for July 22 and the morning of July 23, 2021. The underlying state offense is the basis for pending violation and until that case is resolved, it is impossible to resolve the pending violation. Mr. DeLeon is due back in state court July 10th on which date he believes the case will resolved or a trial date will be set.

Accordingly, I respectfully request the Court adjourn Mr. Deleon's appearance until the week of July 19th or a date and time convenient for the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Donna R. Newman
